The place to meet the perfect partner

Ignite Dating is here to change the way our clients date. Every client works closely with their own dedicated matchmaker, who will get to know more about them, asking the right questions to gain an insight into what they are looking for in a partner, as well as making recommendations of people who could be a good match. Then, working with our extensive private network, database and affiliate agencies across the UK as well as targeted headhunting, we handpick potential matches based on their lifestyle, aspirations and values.

All our franchisees have excellent interpersonal skills, a friendly and empathetic nature, and a deep passion for helping people. With these natural qualities, together with extensive training in matchmaking from a team with years of experience within the dating industry, they are perfectly set up to deliver this unique service to their clients.

Michelle is an exceptional matchmaker. We first met in December 2018. My marriage of 20 plus years had ended that summer and Michelle understood how difficult it was for me to re-enter the dating world.

She quickly got to know me and within less than two months she had introduced me to the wonderful woman who is now my partner. I would have been lost without Michelle's help and guidance; I will always be grateful to her.

THE OPPORTUNITY

With lifestyles getting busier and working hours getting longer, single people are finding it harder to find a life partner in a natural environment. The dating landscape has changed dramatically in recent years, and it is increasingly difficult to meet people without spending hours on labour-intensive dating apps that come with an element of risk – but it doesn't have to be that way. At Ignite Dating we take the stress and risk away for our clients, providing a dating journey that leaves them feeling confident and energised in a safe and secure environment.

The UK Matchmaking industry is now worth over £273 million and is predicted to hit £6.7 billion by 2025. Joining the Ignite Dating family allows you to take control of your life and run a successful business that fits around your family and other commitments. With optimum work-life balance and flexibility in mind, the Ignite Dating franchise allows you to run your business your way, with ongoing support and expertise provided by our dedicated team to offer a highly professional and sought-after service in a lucrative market sector.

Once they are on board, you will work closely with your clients and with the support of our expert matchmaking team, find and validate high-quality candidates for you to interview and then present as a match.

✦ USE OF THE IGNITE DATING BRAND

Under the Franchise Agreement, you will operate using the established and successful Ignite Dating brand processes and systems, including the name, logo and website. This gives you instant leverage and the confidence to go out into the marketplace and get off to a flying start with a highly respected and reputable brand behind you.

✦ TRAINING AND ONGOING SUPPORT

We have invested time in developing our Franchisee Training Programme and Operations Manual to give you the tools necessary to run your business efficiently from day one. ✦ EXCLUSIVE TERRITORY

Upon joining the Ignite Dating family, you will be assigned a substantial exclusive territory close to you, giving you the opportunity to build a sizeable business over the coming years in an area you already know well.

Following the death of my beloved wife after 32 years of perfect marriage, it took me a long time to accept that she was right and that my life must go on. But at 65, to say I was fearful and very uncomfortable about approaching an agency to find a companion would be a huge understatement. However, the compassion, skill and intelligence that Sam possessed, not only allayed my very considerable fears and discomfort but also created what I think was a perfect and accurate profile of me and a deep understanding of what I was looking for in a partner. With such ability, it should be no surprise that the very first person introduced to me has proved to be a perfect match and as such I have found a happiness which I never imagined I would again have in my life. Sam is in my estimation, a unique insightful and caring matchmaker and from a personal standpoint I am hugely indebted to her.

THE FORMULA

* WE ARE DISCREET

We protect our clients from the perils of online dating, offering them a confidential service that allows them to avoid the swipe lottery and take the stress and the time-wasting out of their dating journey.

* WE ARE HONEST

We cannot achieve the impossible, but what we can do is provide a safe environment for our clients to meet single, like-minded people who have the same lifestyle, values and aspirations as them.

* TAILOR MADE

We make no assumptions – we tailor our service to suit exactly what the client is looking for, taking into consideration the qualities, traits and values that are most important to them.

* PERSONAL SERVICE

Our clients have access to their own dedicated matchmaker who will be at their side to help guide them through their dating journey, headhunt potential matches and who will offer impartial advice and take feedback on board to ensure that they are being introduced to the right people for them.

The whole experience of setting up an Ignite Dating franchise has been brilliant from the start. The unity and support that I have received has meant that although I am responsible for running my own business, I have never felt alone or isolated like a lot of business owners do when they are first starting up. Instead, I have been surrounded by experts supporting me with all aspects of my business, from inception through to the day to day running. With informative training and a forum to share ideas and experiences I have been able to learn new skills that have really helped me grow my business, despite the restrictions in place due to the pandemic. If you are looking for a flexible but supportive business opportunity regardless of your previous experience in matchmaking, this is the perfect one. With the guidance and support from the Ignite Dating team, anybody can make their franchise a huge success and I guarantee you will fall in love with this new journey you are on.
